Issue 03. October 2022

Project partner meeting in Spain

On 29th-30th of March the partnership of NEW TIMES gathered for a face-to-face meeting in Madrid, Spain. The meeting was organized and hosted by Asociación El Olivar, and it was attended by project partners from Italy, Lithuania, the Netherlands, Cyprus and Spain. The participants had a dialogue with the migrants who live in the flat supported by Asociación El Olivar. All of the migrants were from Morocco. The discussion was focused on their legal situation at this moment, what are the main challenges they have to face and how they see themselves in a five years future. The conversation was fluent and fun in spite of the difficulties they explained to the partners of the project. The three boys that participated in the discussion had different legal status (one has legal documents, other is waiting for the legal documents and the last one, has to wait almost two years to obtain legal papers). The conversation explored as well their process of integration, especially in relation to the religion, racism and habits. In general, it was a very constructive and instructive conversation because it was an immersion on the real problems that people from other countries suffer when they come to Europe.
