Issue 04. December 2022

Final TPM in the Netherlands

On 20th-21st of September in 's-Hertogenbosch, Netherlands partnership organised the last transnational meeting within the framework of the project „NEW TIMES“. The meeting was organised and hosted by Tirantes. The meeting was attended by project partners from Italy, Lithuania, Spain and the Netherlands. On 20th of September in the morning partners met in the meeting place called „Participatiehuis“, where they had interesting presentations and discussions with representatives of municipalities. During the discussion partnership heard a very interesting experience based on the project called „Bossche Sferen“. In the afternoon partners revised the achieved project results and discussed on future activities. On the second meeting day participants had a dialogue with the migrants that live in 's-Hertogenbosch. The discussion was focused on challenges they have to face and how they see themselves in the future. The conversation explored as well their process of integration, especially in relation to the religion, racism and habits.
